

ESSURE PHYSICIAN CODING & REIMBURSEMENT GUIDE EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2010

ICD-9 Diagnosis Code

V25.2 Admission for Interruption of Fallopian Tubes or Vas Deferens

Physician Coding & Payment

Refer to the table below for the Medicare National Average Physician Payment. Commercial carriers may defer to these payment levels when negotiating their own physician fee schedules for the procedure.

MEDICARE HOSPITAL OUTPATIENT & AMBULATORY SURGERY CENTER CODING & PAYMENT

CPT CODE	DESCRIPTION	NON-FACILITY RVUS (POS 11 – OFFICE)	2010 MEDICARE NATIONAL AVERAGE PHYSICIAN PAYMENT (NON- FACILITY)	A FACILITY RVUS (POS 22 OR 24 - HOPD OR ASC)	2010 MEDICARE NATIONAL AVERAGE PHYSICIAN PAYMENT (FACILITY)
58565	Hysteroscopic Sterilization with bilateral fallopian tube cannulation to induce occlusion by placement of permanent implants.	50.53	$1,822.41	11.73	$423.05

HSG Testing (Confirmation Test)

ICD-9 Diagnosis Codes (use both in this order)

V67.09 Follow-up examination following other surgery
V26.51 Tubal ligation status

CPT Codes

58340 Catheterization and introduction of saline or contrast material for saline infusion sonohysterography (SIS) or hysterosalpingography
74740 Hysterosalpingography, radiologic supervision and interpretation
74740-26 Professional component only

If you have additional questions, contact the Conceptus Essure System Reimbursement Support Line toll free at 1-877-377-8732 prompt # and your Regional Payer Relations Manager will contact you, or send an e-mail to Essure_Reimbursement@Conceptus.com.

The Quick Code Reference Card is provided as a courtesy for information purposes in assisting with the reimbursement process and to help with correct coding compliance and claim submission. It is not intended to guarantee reimbursement or maximize or increase reimbursement by payers. Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) © Copyright 2008, American Medical Association.

Conceptus[®] Inc.

331 East Evelyn Avenue
Mountain View, CA 94041, USA
Main 650-962-4000
Fax 650-962-5200